

Sergio Silva nasce a Parma nel 1936.

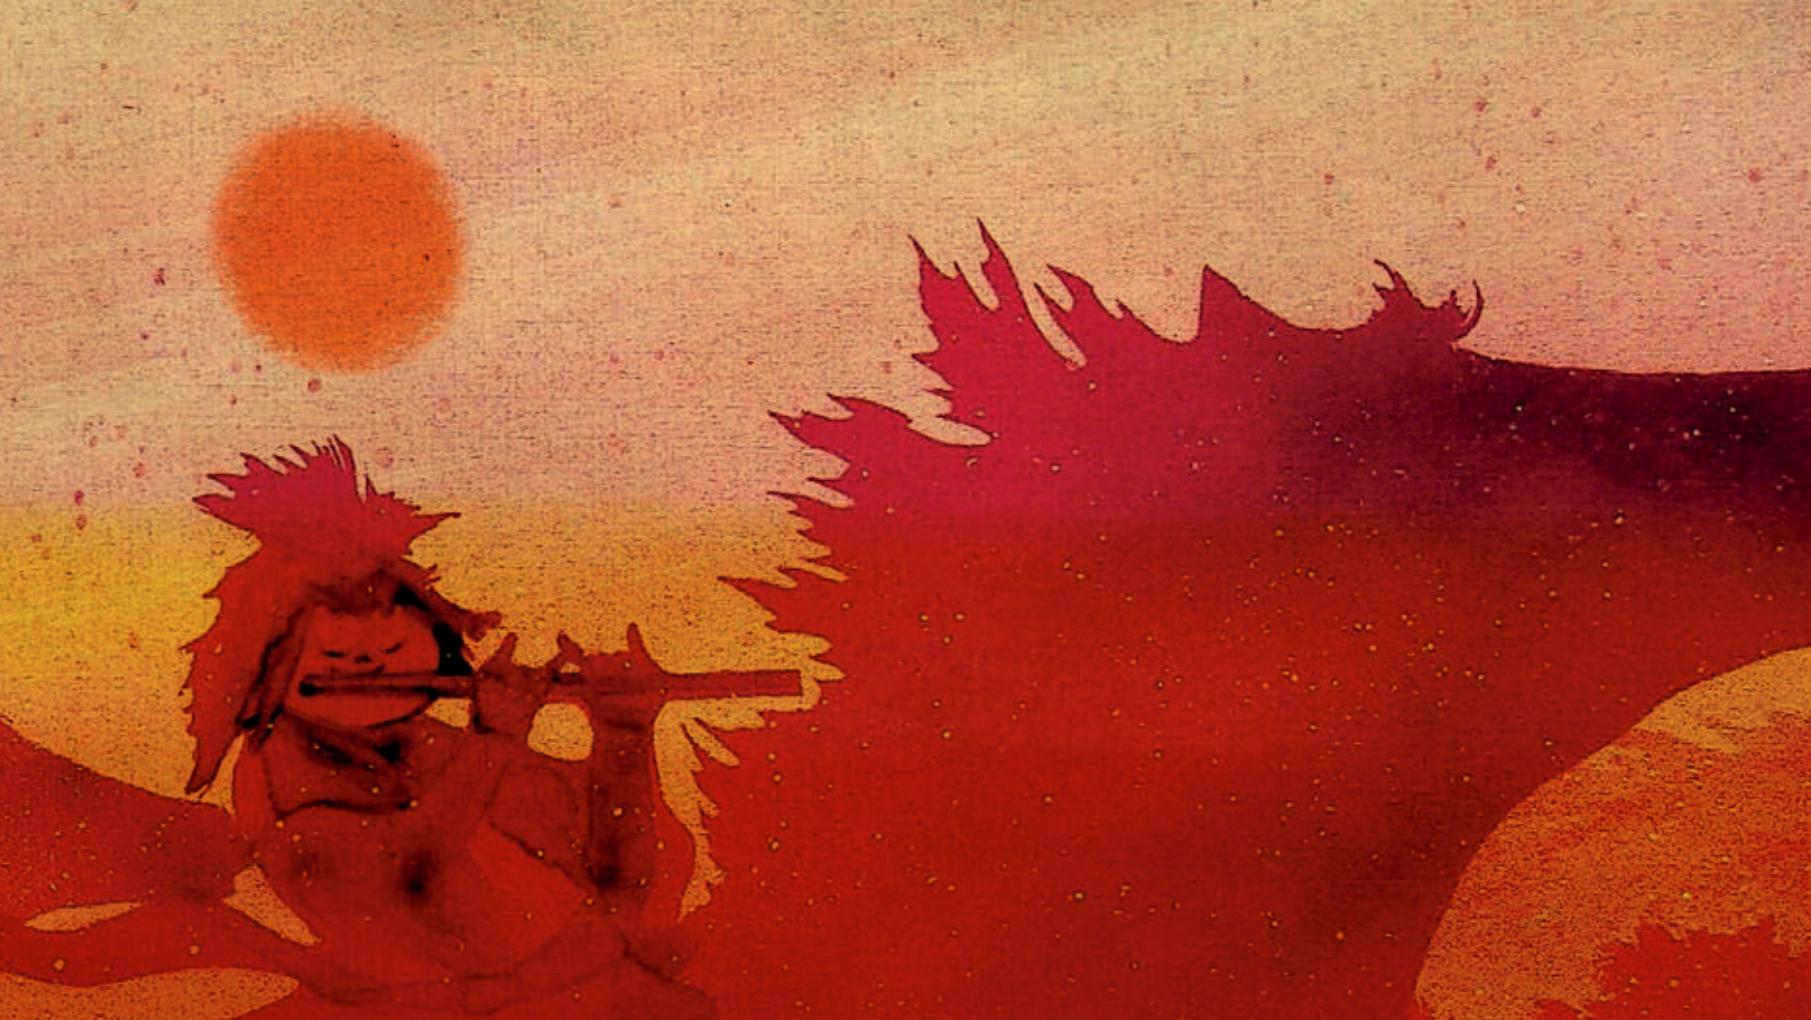

Diplomato all'Istituto d'Arte Toschi, comincia presto a lavorare come grafico nell'azienda familiare, la Artegrafica Silva, fondata dal padre Giuseppe nel 1938 e dove il fratello Maurizio si occupa dell'amministrazione.
È mancato prematuramente nel 1984.

La sua esperienza come membro della giuria del Graphic Prize della Fiera Internazionale di Bologna inizia nel 1973 e prosegue nel decennio a venire, assieme ad altri protagonisti del Centro Studi Bodoni di Parma, grafici e bibliotecari, amanti dei caratteri, delle tecniche di stampa e dell'editoria di qualità.

I libri ricevuti come giurato vennero conservati con cura nella casa di Tornolo, buon ritiro familiare sull'Appennino Parmense fino al 2016.

Quando il fratello Maurizio decide di donare i volumi alla Biblioteca Scolastica La Baia del Re dell'Istituto Comprensivo Salvo d'Acquisto, grazie alla cura dell'Associazione Bibliomondo Famiglie Volontarie, nasce il Fondo Sergio Silva Libri Illustrati.

progetto, dedichiamo qui e a tutte un pensiero e un personale ringraziamento.
In particolare siamo grate a:

Fondazione Cariparma partner di tanti
progetti;

Bologna Children's Book Fair nella figura di Elena Pasoli per aver riconosciuto il potenziale e valore del Fondo e averlo
voluto ospite alla Fiera;

Regione Emilia Romagna che ha reso possibile questo volume e la preziosa
catalogazione in Imago;

Sergio Silva per aver collezionato i libri che oggi costituiscono il Fondo che porta il suo nome e al fratello Maurizio per aver avuto il desiderio di volerli far vivere
ancora per molto tempo;

Emanuela Bussolati per averci accompagnato in questi anni.

Presentazione

Il festoso e colorato appuntamento annuale con la Fiera Internazionale del Libro per Ragazzi di Bologna si rinnova, con le ricche proposte delle più prestigiose case editrici internazionali pronte a trasmettere idee, narrazioni e immaginazione.

Anche quest'anno ci affacciamo con la consueta curiosità alla prestigiosa kermesse contribuendo con la messa a conoscenza di un 'pezzo' eccellente della sua gloriosa storia.

La produzione editoriale del decennio 1973-1983 è stata interamente restituita mediante la catalogazione, coordinata e promossa dal Settore Patrimonio Culturale, di un eccellente Fondo di libri che hanno partecipato e concorso al Premio bolognese, conservati dal grafico parmense Sergio Silva, membro della Giuria, donati dalla famiglia alla biblioteca scolastica di Parma La Baia del Re, coadiuvata nell'opera di valorizzazione dall'Associazione Bibliomondo famiglie volontarie aps.

Il patrimonio, reso disponibile sul web, è accompagnato da questa anteprima di 900 copertine, una sinfonia visiva di immagini di talentuosi illustratori, preludio alla consultazione analitica del Fondo nel Portale IMAGO, catalogo digitale specialistico dedicato alla grafica e alla fotografia regionale, dove questo ricco capitolo contribuisce al racconto iconografico del nostro sapere.

Anche alla frequentazione dei cataloghi digitali i ragazzi devono essere accompagnati: sono meravigliosi ingranaggi con cui decifrare il mondo, non solo con le parole, ma con la capacità evocativa e incantatoria delle immagini.

Un'emozione restituita

Maurizio e Caterina Silva

Quando ci è stato comunicato che era in preparazione questo catalogo che illustra tutte le 900 copertine dei volumi del Fondo Sergio Silva, abbiamo pensato che mai ci saremmo aspettati di arrivare ad un traguardo simile. Del resto, non erano state di certo scontate tutte le mete raggiunte in precedenza.

La nostra famiglia da sempre vive in mezzo ai libri, per passione e professione. Il Fondo Sergio Silva, prima di essere ufficialmente tale, era per noi di famiglia un piccolo tesoro, il cui valore risiedeva tanto nel suo contenuto fisico – questi magnifici libri illustrati provenienti da tutto il mondo – quanto nel suo portato emotivo, essendo costituito da oggetti che ci legavano affettivamente al ricordo del nostro caro, conservati nel luogo del cuore sulle montagne.

E come un tesoro è stato donato a chi, lo abbiamo ben presto capito, ne ha subito compreso la preziosità e l'unicità, ma anche le grandi potenzialità, che sarebbero rimaste inespresse se fosse rimasto sugli scaffali della casa di famiglia. Con rispetto, garbo ma anche grande energia ed entusiasmo, il Fondo è stato studiato, ordinato, promosso, digitalizzato, catalogato, ‘portato in giro’, restituito agli occhi e alle orecchie dei bambini ma anche messo a disposizione di esperti e studiosi.

Di questo saremo sempre profondamente grati a tutti coloro, singole persone ed Istituzioni, che a vario titolo si sono adoperati – ed ancora lo faranno – perché questa raccolta, e con lei la memoria di Sergio, vivano una seconda vita.

Il Catalogo

Roberta Cristofori

Quel lungo cammino di incontri con il patrimonio che, per accorta formazione, ha sempre guardato a un largo perimetro di documenti, non cessa di riservare, ancora oggi, fortunati inciampi, inaspettate sorprese.

La sorpresa arriva da una Collezione custodita nella mia città, Parma, oggetto di un dono munifico della famiglia Silva, eppur poco nota, se non a quel mondo che ai libri illustrati per ragazzi guarda con attenzione e autentica passione.

Libri per ragazzi? Libri per tutti, naturalmente, gioielli di illustratori e autori talentuosi, manufatti di rara bellezza e cura editoriale, anche per questo degni contributi a una formazione ricca di potenzialità, carica di aspettative, da cui stralciare la povertà comunicativa nel segno dell'educazione (anche alla bellezza e all'immaginazione) e non solo dell'istruzione.

Ora, quel ricco tesoro, 'momentaneamente sottratto' all'encomiabile cura divulgativa ad opera dell'Associazione Bibliomondo Famiglie Volontarie, trova un'altra via di conoscenza, quella del Catalogo, e di un catalogo, IMAGO, che di grafica e fotografia è scrigno di eccellenze sparse in questa nostra sorprendente Regione dove, oltre alle prestigiose raccolte pubbliche, fan capolino una miriade di fondi e collezioni che lungimiranti e spesso sconosciuti amatori e collezionisti hanno pazientemente raccolto e custodito.

Nessuna esitazione, nessuna incertezza a dare cittadinanza a questo capitale e a trattarlo con i crismi della filologia biblioteconomica per restituirlo alla conoscenza di tanti, oltre che agli studi scientifici nelle più varie declinazioni.

Si tratta, in fondo, di dare continuità a un'esperienza.

Ecco dunque che la ventata di 'leggerezza', nella calviniana accezione, del Fondo Sergio Silva, è arrivata a illuminare il paesaggio iconografico di un Catalogo che fin dal suo esordio non ha mai abbassato lo sguardo dinanzi a un lessico illustrativo meno incline a un'ortodossia tradizionale, non disdegnomateriali quali figurine, cartoline, ephemera d'ogni genere, inseriti a pieno titolo tra le pieghe di disegni accademici e rarissimi bulini, acqueforti cristalline e morbide acquetinte, ruvide xilografie e litografie in punta di matita, stampe d'invenzione e di traduzione in fogli sciolti, cartelle o volumi, e illustrazioni di riviste, manifesti, fumetti, graphic novel, fino a prototipi e progetti per un'iconografia restituita oggi dalla tecnologia digitale.

Nei decenni IMAGO ha restituito, e restituisce, un sontuoso corpus di invenzioni, copie, varianti, repliche, interpretazioni, un itinerario iconografico denso con quella predilezione mai sopita a indagare il rapporto tra parola e immagine che questi libri magistralmente riportano in causa e invitano a rivedere, complici di quella durevole contesa che un recente saggio ha così voluto sintetizzare: La felicità delle immagini, il peso delle parole (Sarchi, 2019).

Questi volumi (europei, giapponesi, persiani, australiani) che arrivano da luoghi dalle geografie modificate nel corso degli anni, attraverso il dialogo e il legame che stringono con il vasto patrimonio del Catalogo, si riconsegnano al nostro sguardo e alla nostra mente come il frutto di rielaborazioni iconografiche e tematiche senza confini, pescano, nella cifra dell'ibridazione e del confronto, nelle trame di quello che pare un unico vasto denso patrimonio, capaci di fondere tradizioni, memorie, identità

Così, la Felicità delle immagini irrompe anche in questo lieve libricino, un carambolage di novecento copertine che, come in un immenso domino, attraversa stili e geografie, un segnalibro sul Fondo Silva col quale omaggiare amatori e curiosi e indirizzare i lettori verso il Peso delle parole, quelle che lo scintillio filologico della catalogazione si impegna a restituire.

Grazie a Sergio Silva, che della fucina parmense del Centro Studi Bodoni fu una delle anime. Leggendo la sua troppo breve biografia, un uomo curioso, affabile e ironico, mi piace salutarlo con l'epiteto: un Bodoniano di carattere!

Fondo Sergio Silva: un tesoro di storici libri illustrati

Marina Petruzio

C'era una volta, e ancora c'è, nella bella città di Parma, una scuola elementare di periferia con una biblioteca dal nome altisonante: La Baia del Re. In quell'epoca viveva anche un signore gentile, che ancora oggi conserva tutta la sua gentilezza, Maurizio Silva, che aveva un grande desiderio: donare la collezione di libri illustrati raccolti nel tempo dal fratello Sergio e conservati da sempre nella sua casa tra gli Appennini, a Pontestrambo un luogo che porta con sé, insito nel suo nome, la promessa di un racconto fiabesco. E mai incontro fu più incredibile.

Comincia così, proprio come una favola, la nuova vita dei circa 900 volumi che hanno partecipato, nel decennio tra il 1973 e il 1983, al Graphic Prize della Mostra Internazionale di Illustrazione di Bologna e che ora costituiscono il corpus del "Fondo Sergio Silva Libri Illustrati" di Parma. Conservati per anni e ritrovati poi da Maurizio Silva, editore conosciuto a Parma per la stamperia di famiglia, "Artegrafica Silva", fondata nel 1938 dal padre Giuseppe.

Un piccolo tesoro collezionato dal fratello prematuramente scomparso, Sergio Silva grafico, illustratore e allora giurato alla suddetta mostra, e donato da Maurizio con la saggia naturalezza che spesso hanno i pensieri semplici dettati solo dal desiderio che dei libri illustrati per bambini tornino in qualche modo ai bambini. E solo donandoli a una biblioteca scolastica questo poteva essere possibile e non a una biblioteca qualsiasi ma alla Baia del Re in cui opera, a fianco della scuola, Associazione Bibliomondo famiglie volontarie aps, che raccolgono famiglie e persone che in totale autofinanziamento lavorano per mantenere viva la biblioteca, aprendola al territorio, aggiornandone il catalogo con nuovi acquisti, promuovendo incontri e laboratori per bambine e bambini.

Una biblioteca di un quartiere periferico dove convivono bambini e famiglie con vissuti molto diversi e dove il libro, l'illustrazione, la narrazione hanno un valore democratico di crescita sociale. Maurizio Silva sceglie così un istituto che comprende una scuola dell'infanzia, due scuole primarie e una secondaria di primo grado: l'"Istituto comprensivo Salvo d'Acquisto" di Parma capitanato da Nadia Malcisi, dirigente scolastica di grande apertura che da allora, al fianco della curatrice, Vanja Passerini, e delle volontarie che a diverso titolo se ne occupano, lavora per promuovere e rendere possibili i vari progetti ai quali si affaccia il Fondo che annovera tra i suoi collaboratori Emanuela Bussolati, da tutti considerata la madrina del Fondo, che per prima vedendolo ne comprese il potenziale, e la sottoscritta.

Il Fondo Sergio Silva Libri Illustrati è una collezione ricchissima e di grande valore artistico e storico che costituisce, attraverso volumi perfettamente conservati, la migliore produzione internazionale del periodo. Molti sono i libri che rappresentano, oltre all'Italia, i paesi anglosassoni, la Francia, la Germania, un ricco campione giapponese e una piccola ma assai significativa presenza di libri iraniani pubblicati nel periodo pre e post rivoluzione komeinista, a raccontare di una geografia modificata dalla storia o in divenire: tra questi, volumi pubblicati nella Germania dell'Est, in Jugoslavia, in Cecoslovacchia e in Russia oltre a volumi sudafricani, scandinavi e neozelandesi.

Oltre a comprendere quindi molte delle diverse lingue che risuonano nel mondo, nel Fondo sono presenti libri di tutti i generi e non unicamente rivolti all'infanzia ma per tutti come la bella letteratura deve essere: dall'albo illustrato propriamente detto, al libro illustrato, il libro gioco, quello fotografico; libri enormi e minuscoli, semplicissimi o elaborati, a colori o in bianco e nero. Una fotografia della produzione editoriale mondiale del periodo, tra cui spiccano opere di grandissimi nomi dell'illustrazione e titoli che sono ormai divenuti dei classici.

Percorrerlo è come intraprendere un viaggio in mongolfiera dove sotto di noi, tra le pagine, scorrono paesaggi di ogni tipo, le tecniche di rappresentazione più svariate, un mondo di colori e sfumature inclusivo e multiculturale dove i libri, condividendo un comune spazio uno accanto all'altro sembrano competetrarsi in un continuum sinuoso e armonico che parla una sola lingua: quella delle figure.

I grandi sogni hanno bisogno di ragionati e costanti pensieri, piccoli passi verso grandi progetti, cura e molta pazienza. Partendo da un contributo di Fondazione Cariparma, tutti i volumi del Fondo hanno avuto la possibilità di essere inseriti in un elenco, primordio di un catalogo, e copertinati per proteggerli nella consultazione, nell'eventuale trasporto in altri luoghi e nella permanenza sugli scaffali di un'aula dedicata all'interno della scuola. Ogni copertina originale scansionata e resa disponibile in un sito oggi completamente ridefinito e facilmente consultabile.

Da quel lontano 2016 il Fondo è una piccola fucina di idee e di possibilità che hanno arricchito via via il suo curriculum e dalle quali, nel tempo, sono scaturite alcune importanti collaborazioni come quella con l'Università Ca' Foscari di Venezia che nel tempo ha visto realizzarsi un incontro di approfondimento sugli albi di lingua inglese a cura del Dipartimento di Studi Linguistici e Culturali Comparati; un primo circolo di studio per l'analisi e la traduzione da parte degli studenti del Corso di Laurea Magistrale di lingua e cultura iraniana a vantaggio della sezione iranista del Fondo e la mostra Verso il confine...e oltre! Raccontare le migrazioni negli albi illustrati realizzata nel contesto del Progetto FAMI IMPACT Veneto co-finanziato dall'Unione Europea tenutasi presso Palazzo Co-sulich a Venezia.

I libri iraniani che per la loro particolarità e unicità sono anche al centro di pubblici approfondimenti aperti alla città e partecipano alla 36esima edizione della "Mostra internazionale d'illustrazione per l'infanzia a Sarmede" dal titolo Dalla Persia all'Iran – Mille è una fiaba.

E proprio agli esordi della battuta d'arresto epocale che il mondo ha subito in questi anni, il Fondo si fa promotore di un ciclo di incontri di formazione che coinvolge gli insegnanti dell'Istituto e non solo, finalizzati ad accrescere le competenze della comunità educante nella scuola, nel quartiere e sul territorio, attorno all'albo illustrato, al suo potenziale e utilizzo. Un ciclo di incontri che preparano il campo a una officina di sperimentazione multidisciplinare che vede l'incontro di illustratori, insegnanti, editori, autori, ricercatori, basata sulla condivisione dei saperi.

Per la sua collocazione all'interno di una biblioteca scolastica in un Istituto Comprensivo, il Fondo Sergio Silva ha da sempre dialogato con le studentesse e gli studenti di scuole di diverso ordine e grado e con le bambine e i bambini della biblioteca, all'interno dell'Istituto e in convenzione con altre scuole sul territorio grazie a momenti laboratoriali di conoscenza dei libri, delle storie e delle immagini e dei legami che ogni volume stringe con altri nella collezione, in una rete di rimandi e abbinamenti senza fine. La maggior parte dei libri presenti nel Fondo sono stati pensati per un pubblico di bambini e ragazzi ed è pertanto fondamentale che a loro tornino, anche se necessariamente mediati da un adulto.

Dopo quarant'anni nella primavera del 2022 il Fondo torna alla Bologna Children's Book Fair per presentarsi a quel mondo a cui ha sempre appartenuto e a cui appartiene ora in una veste nuova. Sulla scia dell'interesse scaturito da quell'incontro, quest'anno per la 60esima edizione il Fondo partecipa alla Fiera con tre eventi per presentare quelli che ormai tutti definiscono i suoi gioielli: una cospicua collezione di albi, per lo più inediti in Italia, dell'opera di Mitsu-masa Anno presentata da Kiyoko Matsuoka direttrice dell'Itabashi Art Museum di Tokyo e curatrice della mostra su Anno tenutasi in Giappone nel 2012; i titoli illustrati da Maurice Sendak raccontati dalle parole di Sergio Ruzzier e l'incredibile lavoro di Tomi Ungerer caro a molti bambini e adulti raccontato dalla figlia Aria Ungerer direttrice della Fondazione che porta il nome del padre.

Gli obiettivi del Fondo Sergio Silva Libri Illustrati per il futuro sono la catalogazione in SBN (accessibile da IMAGO. Catalogo collettivo digitale di opere grafiche fotografiche e cartografiche della Regione Emilia-Romagna e dal Portale Alphabetica di ICCU), il prosieguo dell'attività con le scuole di ogni ordine e grado, lo sviluppo e il consolidamento del suo potenziale di centro di ricerca e studio sui suoi autori principali sul territorio nazionale. Un circolo di studio attorno al quale si riuniscono in multidisciplinarietà le varie figure protagoniste del panorama dell'editoria rivolta all'infanzia e a tutti.

La casa del Fondo Silva

Valentina Ambrogi (Referente Biblioteca e promozione alla Lettura)

Nadia Malcisi (Dirigente scolastica I.C. Salvo D'Acquisto - Parma)

L'incontro con la raccolta di albi illustrati di Sergio Silva, evento sorprendente ed insperato, e la successiva acquisizione da parte del nostro Istituto Comprensivo Salvo D'Acquisto (Parma), ha da subito generato un circuito virtuoso di iniziative culturali, educative e didattiche.

Grazie alla preziosissima donazione degli eredi Silva la raccolta è divenuta patrimonio della nostra biblioteca scolastica La Baia del Re regalando ad una utenza di alunni e insegnanti una risorsa di valore straordinario dalle molteplici potenzialità. In questa biblioteca, aderente al Sistema Bibliotecario Parmense, aperta al pubblico in orario pomeridiano dal 2011 grazie all'opera encomiabile dell'Associazione Bibliomondo Famiglie Volontarie, il Fondo ha trovato la sua 'Casa', una prima forma di 'nuova' visibilità pubblica, il ritorno alla circolazione e condivisione socio-culturale .

L'obiettivo condiviso, oltre al recupero dal rischio di abbandono e deterioramento, è stato riportare alla vita questo 'tesoro' in una sede sicura dal forte valore simbolico: gli albi, creati per le bambine e i bambini, hanno trovato casa e protetta custodia in una scuola per bambine e bambini, ragazze e ragazzi, dove i loro sguardi curiosi ne rinnoveranno costantemente il senso.

Allo stesso tempo, si è trovata la via per l'ambiziosa impresa di portare il Fondo Silva al di là delle mura della nostra scuola, al fine di garantirgli adeguata valorizzazione a livello nazionale e internazionale. Da qui i tanti passi intrapresi.

Siamo oggi, dunque, doppiamente grati all'Assessorato alla Cultura della Regione Emilia-Romagna, e al Settore Patrimonio Culturale – Area Biblioteche e Archivi, per aver finanziato la catalogazione consultabile su web nel portale IMAGO – Catalogo Collettivo Digitale della Regione Emilia-Romagna e la pubblicazione di questo catalogo a stampa: un progetto fantasticato e sperato, ora realizzato.

Questa è una bella storia che ci inorgoglisce per il solo fatto di farne parte e per aver contribuito, in piccola misura, a restituire questo tesoro, favorendo la condivisione della conoscenza del patrimonio dalla Comunità reale che lo conserva alla Comunità virtuale che ne potrà fruire.
